AccruePartners Announces the Promotion of Matt Donato to Vice President

December 14, 2011, Charlotte, NC - AccruePartners, a professional recruitment and staffing firm, is pleased to announce the recent promotion of Matt Donato to the position of Vice President.

As Vice President, Donato will assume elevated levels of responsibility in the representation of the entire firm while leading the Finance and Accounting Practice as Division Director.

With over six years of experience in the staffing and recruiting industry, Matt Donato began his career with AccruePartners in Business Development, subsequently moving into Executive Search for the Accounting and Finance division. In 2010, he was promoted to Division Director of Finance and Accounting, with oversight of his team consisting of both executive search and temporary/contract staffing

"Donato has demonstrated the ability to lead a team, achieve high levels of group production and maintain a high performance desk with personal billings in excess of $500K. He consistently provides valuable direction to candidates on career moves, consults with clients on market conditions and strategies and adds great value to the employment market, our firm and the industry," said Patty Comer, Principal Partner of AccruePartners. "It is because of his continued contribution, loyalty and success that he is being promoted to Vice President."

Prior to working for AccruePartners, Donato spent several years with a national staffing and recruiting firm in the Charlotte area. He holds a BS degree in Economics from Roanoke College and completed his CSP certification in 2007.
