Resume Selection Process

taking the process out of your work

Let's face it - you're busy. Your staff is busy too. You need new talent but don't have time to sort through the mounds of resumes you received from your ad. And scheduling interviews? You'd need a 9-day work week.

That's why AccruePartners is introducing Resume Selection Outsourcing. This innovative new service streamlines our current offerings to offset all the "extras" that come with in-house recruiting. From reviewing resumes, contacting preferred candidates, and providing thorough testing, to scheduling interviews, we'll take the seams out of the process and let you focus on what matters most to your business.

For positions below $45,000 in annual salary, we will provide a significant vetting process of the candidates that you have received from your ad for a flat fee of $3,350.00. You will receive one e-mail with all attached information including a profile of why they have been selected as a finalist.

For positions above $45,000 in annual salary, pricing is dependent on the role. Please contact us for more information about how we can help you fill these roles.

AccruePartners will not directly recruit for your position nor are our standard guarantees offered on the candidate selected.
